Write one paragraph about the activity.

The seminar was inaugurated by the chief guest, Director of Higher Education, Prof. C.D. Suntha by lighting the lamp. Director of Higher Education, Professor CD Suntha, Director of Higher Education, Uttarakhand, in his address underlined the need to do better work in higher education institutions. Talking about leadership in colleges, he said that no institution can give good results without better leadership. He suggested educational institutions to perform better at both internal and external levels. In his address, he said that IQAC can offer a second level of leadership at the college level, which will increase the quality of higher education. Convenor of this national seminar and Principal of Government College, Professor Sumita Srivastava welcomed all the guests present, invited speakers and participants and presented saplings and mementos to all the guests as gifts. In his address, he said that through this conference there will be an exchange of ideas related to the changes taking place in the field of higher education which will benefit all the stakeholders.

The special guest of the inaugural session, Shri Kundan Singh Pawar, Director of Narayani Plantation, said in his address that it is an honor for the region that academicians from different states have participated in this seminar. Assuring all kinds of facilities, he wished the college all the best for a successful event. Professor Prabhat Dwivedi, Principal Government College, Chinyalisaur, who was present as the Chairman of the first technical session, said in his address that a lot is happening in the field of higher education, but the quality is a matter of concern. He further said that efforts will have to be made by all stakeholders to enhance the quality of higher education, only then we will be able to provide a global level higher education. He said that in terms of numbers, we are third in the world after America and China, but are far behind in terms of quality.

Professor N.P. Maheshwari, former Director of Higher Education, Uttarakhand, present as an expert speaker, gave information regarding NAAC, an organization created to increase the quality of higher education. He said that through NAAC, the quality of higher education institutions is being improved. A lot of improvement is being done because NAAC reviews the work being done in educational institutions regarding overall development of students, quality of education, skill development and educational environment in colleges etc. and grades them accordingly. Dr. Vaibhav Shukla, Principal Government College, Paonta Sahib Sirmaur, Himachal Pradesh, as an expert speaker, gave detailed information regarding the current status of NAAC Accreditation and new education policy being done in Himachal Pradesh.

Principal of Government Post Graduate College Purola Uttarkashi, Professor A.K. Tiwari shared in detail his experience related to the recent NAAC accreditation in his college. He told how the NAAC team checks the physical facilities in the college, and the work being done by the college every year is verified by NAAC through the DVV process. Principal of Government College Command, Professor Gauri Sevak, who was presiding over the second technical session, in her address discussed about the NAC being conducted in the college and the recently implemented new education policy. He said that with the implementation of the new education policy, the format of teaching and learning in educational institutions has changed, which is relevant keeping in mind the new technology and global competition. Professor Sharad Kumar Vaishya,
